

The ACVIM Distinguished Service Award

The ACVIM Distinguished Service Award is given in recognition of outstanding and dedicated service by an ACVIM Diplomate in a volunteer capacity to the college. Presented annually, recipients have an outstanding record of service to ACVIM either as an elected official of the college or through voluntary service on task forces, committees, or as an advocate of the college to the veterinary profession or public.

ACVIM Distinguished Service Award Recipients

2022	Dr. William R. Fenner	(Neurology)
2021	Dr. Michelle Barton	(Large Animal Internal Medicine)
2020	Dr. Rebeca Gompf	(Cardiology)
2019	Dr. Leah Cohn	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2018	Dr. Guy Pidgeon	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2017	Dr. Jean A. Hall	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2016	Dr. Allen Roussel	(Large Animal Internal Medicine)
2015	Dr. Mary Rose Paradis	(Large Animal Internal Medicine)
2014	Dr. Eleanor Hawkins	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2013	Dr. David Twedt	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2012	Dr. Joseph Taboada	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2011	Dr. John E. Oliver, Jr.	(SAIM and Neurology)
2010	Dr. Debra Sellon	(Large Animal Internal Medicine)
2009	Dr. Michael Garvey	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2008	Dr. Arthur Lage	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2007	Dr. Jeanne Barsanti	(Small Animal Internal Medicine)
2006	Dr. R. Lee Pyle	(Cardiology)
2005	Dr. Russell Willoughby	(Large Animal Internal Medicine)