

ERC APPROVED LECTURES FOR ACVIM SCHOLARLY ACTIVITY REQUIREMENTS

Wednesday, June 13, 2018

Oncology Specialty Symposium

8:05 am - 8:55 am

SOTA: A Community Integrated Approach to Cancer Research – New Discoveries to Benefit Animal and Human Health

M. Breen

10:10 am - 11:00 am

IrRADIOMICS: Assessing Response and Predictive Utility of Advanced Imaging in Dogs Receiving Cancer Immunotherapy

D. Vail

11:05 am - 11:55 am

The Process of Biomarker Development and Where Are We With Veterinary Oncology Biomarkers

L. Garrett

SAIM Specialty Symposium

10:15 am - 11:05 am

Teaching the Impact of the False Discovery Rate to Clinical Students

S. Marsilio

10:27 am – 10:39 am

Incorporating the Uncertainty of Clinical Outcomes Into Case-based Teaching

B. Boudreau

10:39 am – 10:51 am

Correlation is Not Causation; A Clinical Example for Students

S. Marsilio

10:51 am – 11:03 am

A Classroom Exercise on the Role of Prevalence in Diagnostic Interpretation

K. Creevy

LAIM Specialty Symposium

1:30 pm - 3:15 pm

ACVIM Candidate Function: Novel Roles for Large Animal Diplomates in One Health and Regulatory Medicine

E. Patton, M. Short, K. Nelson, K. Poulsen, T. Kasari

Thursday, June 14, 2018

One Health Scientific Session

10:10 am - 11:00 am

Precision Medicine: Power of Genomics in Companion Animal Disease Discovery and Treatment

L. Lyons

Oncology Scientific Session

2:40 pm - 3:30 pm

SOTA: The Use of a Nationwide Repository of Canine Cancer Patient Biospecimens to Advance Veterinary Oncology

M. Breen