

OWNER AGREEMENT / LIABILITY FOR LIVE ANIMALS IN THE SOLUTIONS CENTER

Please complete this form and return it to ACVIM Exhibit Management for every animal you plan to bring to your booth at the 2022 ACVIM Forum Solutions Center. ACVIM Exhibit Management must approve in writing each animal you wish to bring into the Solutions Center.

I, _____ of _____
Owner or Company Representative Name Exhibiting Company Name Booth #

_____
Street Address City State Zip

am the legal owner or approved handler of _____, weighing _____ pounds, Animal Name Weight in Pounds

a _____ year-old _____, and do hereby agree to abide by the following rules and regulations enforced
Age Breed (Species)

by the Austin Convention Center and the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine (ACVIM) allowing me to bring the aforementioned animal into Halls 1-3.

- I certify that my animal is healthy and current with all required vaccinations. I will keep documentation of such vaccinations in my possession at all times while the animal is in the Austin Convention Center.
- I agree that no medical procedures will be performed on my animal at any time while the animal is in the Austin Convention Center.
- I agree that my animal will be accompanied by me at all times.
- I agree to keep my animal on a leash or otherwise restrained at all times. Please provide details on how the animal will be contained in your booth:

- I agree to keep the exhibit booth area clean at all times, and I am responsible for immediate clean up of any animal waste either inside or outside the Austin Convention Center.
- I agree that my animal will not be exhibited or displayed in any manner that will endanger the safety or wellbeing of patrons or cause undue stress to the animal.
- I agree that any additional insurance required for my animal is to be displayed in the Exhibit Booth, has been obtained, and I will carry proof of such insurance at all times during the 2022 ACVIM Forum.
- I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Austin Convention Center and the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine from and against all claims, demands, causes of actions, suits, damages, loss, liabilities, expenses, and costs (including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs) on account of injury or damage caused by the aforementioned animal to persons or property.
- I understand that for animals participating in contracted events such as dog and cat shows, all displays, pens and enclosures containing live animals require a protective subflooring at all times such as plastic or visqueen. An absorbent material [i.e. fire retardant wood shavings] must be placed within the enclosure on a frequent enough basis to minimize odors and ensure applicable health standards are maintained at all times. Exhibitor and/or show management must provide proper, timely disposal of absorbents and waste. In accordance with Austin Health Department regulations, live animals including birds are prohibited in any area where food is stored, processed, offered for sale, served or consumed; with the exception of service animals or patrol dogs accompanying police or security officers.
